The 22nd January 1857.

The following Extract of a Letter, addressed to the Consul for France at Singapore, by Mr. Magdaine, an Officer of the Steamer "Duroc," of the French Imperial Navy, dated Sourabaya, 2nd October 1856, is published for general information:—

The position of the Mellish Shoal, which is about 160. Leagues N. West of New Caledonia, according to our observations after the wreck, differs sensibly from that given in the Charts. According to our observations it is in Latitude South 17° 23' and Longitude East of Paris 153° 35'.

In South Latitude 16° 24' and Longitude East of Paris 147° 54' I observed an Islet of Red Sand about a mile in circumference, and saw no Reef round it, but the Sea was exceedingly high.

In South Latitude 16° 36' and Longitude East of Paris 145° 40' I also observed a Reef, level with the water, appearing to have an interior lagoon with bluish water. I could not make out the extent of it, but it was several miles in circumference.

I hope you will find an early opportunity to publish these remarks on the Mellish Shoal, where I think a vessel might easily find anchorage. Capt. d'la Voisiere intended, after our departure, to make a survey of the Reef, which had an excellent entrance on the Western side.

The schedule shall be filled up in writing, and signed, and dated, and returned to the office of the Commissioners by every person to whom it is sent, whether or not liable to the payment of such taxes; and whoever refuses, neglects, or omits, duly to fill up and return such schedule within one week from the receipt thereof, or knowingly gives therein any incorrect or false return, shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate, to a penalty not exceeding 200 Rupees.

If the person summoned shall refuse, or, without lawful excuse, neglect to appear in pursuance of the summons, or shall refuse to answer any lawful question of the Commissioners, or knowingly give an incorrect answer, he shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate, to a penalty not exceeding 200 Rupees.

XVII. Appeals against any rate or tax settled by the Commissioners, under the provisions of this or the special Act, shall be heard and determined by two Magistrates, except in the Town of Bombay; and, in the Town of Bombay, by the Court of Petty Sessions.

If there be only one Magistrate acting for any town or station, the appeal may be heard and determined by a Magistrate and a Justice of the Peace. But no appeal against a rate settled by the Commissioners under Section XI shall be heard, unless complaint has been previously made to the Commissioners. The mode of proceeding in such appeal shall be the same as that prescribed for the determination of matters referred to two Magistrates, and at Bombay to the said Court, by Act XIV of 1856. Provided that such Magistrates, or such Magistrate and Justice, and such Court, may, if they shall think fit, state a case for the opinion of the Supreme Court or (in the said Settlement) of Her Majesty's Court of Judicature.

XVIII. Every such appeal shall be commenced within ten days after the accrual of the cause of complaint; which shall in respect of any rate be deemed to accrue on the date of the certificate of the Commissioners in the said book; or, in case of any subsequent amendment of the said book, under the provisions of Section XII, upon the receipt by the person aggrieved of notice of such amendment; and in respect of any tax the cause of complaint shall be deemed to accrue upon the receipt by the person aggrieved of a bill for the sum claimed from him.

XIX. The settlement by the Commissioners of any rate or tax, when no appeal therefrom is made as hereinbefore provided, and the adjudication of any appeal under Section XVII, shall be final and conclusive.

XX. When any rate or tax is due, the Commissioners shall cause to be sent to the person liable to the payment thereof a bill for the sum due, which shall also contain a statement of the period and a description of the property or thing for which the rate or tax is charged. If the bill be for any tax, it shall also contain a notice of the time within which an appeal against such tax may be preferred.

XXI. If the Bill is not paid by the person liable to pay the same within five days from the delivery thereof, the Commissioners may cause to be served upon such person a notice of demand in the form (A) contained in the Schedule to this Act, or to the like effect; and if he shall not, within five days from the service of such notice of demand, pay the sum due, and if no appeal shall have been preferred, such sum with all costs may be recovered by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the defaulter under a warrant in the form (B) in the Schedule, or to the like effect, to be issued for that purpose by the Commissioners.

XXII. The officer charged with the execution of the warrant of distress shall make an inventory of the goods and chattels seized under any such warrant, and shall give a notice in writing, in the form (C) contained in the Schedule annexed to this Act, to the person in possession thereof at the time of the seizure, that the said goods and chattels will be sold as therein mentioned.

XXIII. If the warrant is not in the meantime discharged or suspended by the Commissioners, the goods and chattels seized shall be sold under the orders of the Commissioners who shall apply the proceeds, or such part thereof as may be necessary, in discharge of the said arrears and costs; and the surplus, if any, shall be returned on demand to the person in possession of the goods and chattels at the time of the seizure. The fees payable upon distresses under this Act shall be such as are set forth in the table of fees in the said Schedule.

XXIV. The goods and chattels of any person from whom any rate or tax is due may be distrained wherever the same may be found for default in the payment of the money due from such person.

XXV. If the sum due on account of any rate has accrued due from the owner of any house or land within the period of one year, and remains unpaid, after notice of demand served upon the owner, the Commissioners may demand the amount from the occupier for the time being of such house or land, and on non-payment thereof, may recover the same by distress and sale of any goods and chattels found on the premises. And in such case the occupier may deduct from the next and following payments of his rent the amount which may be so paid by or recovered from him.

XXVI. No distress levied by virtue of this or the special Act shall be deemed unlawful, nor shall any party making the same be deemed a trespasser, on account of any defect or want of form in the notice, schedule, summons, notice of demand, warrant of distress, inventory, or other proceedings relating thereto, nor shall such party be deemed a trespasser ab initio on account of any irregularity afterwards committed by him; but all persons aggrieved by such irregularity may recover full satisfaction for the special damage in any Court of competent jurisdiction.

XXVII. Instead of proceeding by distress and sale, or in case of failure to realize by distress the whole or any part of the sum due in respect of any rate or tax, the Commissioners may sue the person liable to pay the same in any Court of competent jurisdiction.

XXVIII. Every notice, schedule, summons, bill, or notice of demand regarding any assessment, rate, or tax, or any money due in respect of the same, may be served personally upon the person to whom the same is addressed, or be left at his usual place of abode with some adult male member or servant of his family, or, if it cannot be so served, may be put up on some conspicuous part of such place of abode, and shall thereby be deemed to be duly served.

XXIX. The Commissioners may sue instead of or on failure of distress.

XXIX. No assessment and no charge or demand of rate or tax, made under the authority of this or the special Act, shall be impeached or affected by reason of any mistake in the name of any person liable to pay the rate or tax or in the description of any property or thing liable to rate or tax or any mistake in the amount of assessment, provided the directions of this Act and of the special Act be in substance and effect complied with; and no proceedings under this or the special Act shall be quashed or set aside for want of form in any Court of Justice.

Assessment, &c. not to be impeached for want of form.

XXXI. Every officer employed by the Commissioners to assist in the execution of this and the special Act, who accepts, or obtains, or attempts to obtain any fee or gratuity whatsoever, other than his authorized salary or allowances, for doing or foregoing to do any official act, or who shall be in any wise concerned or interested in any bargain or contract made by the Commissioners, shall be removed from his office, and shall be incapable of being afterwards employed by the Commissioners, and shall be liable on conviction before a Magistrate to a penalty not exceeding five hundred rupees.

Penalty on officer taking fees or being interested in contracts.

XXXII. No action shall be brought against the Commissioners, or any of their officers, or any person acting under the direction of the Commissioners, for any thing done or intended to be done under the powers of this or the special Act, until the expiration of one month next after notice in writing shall have been delivered or left at the office of the Commissioners or at the place of abode of such person, explicitly stating the cause of action, and the name and place of abode of the intended plaintiff, and of his attorney or agent in the cause; and upon the trial of any such action, the plaintiff shall not be permitted to go into evidence of any cause of action, except such as is stated in the notice so delivered; and unless such notice be proved, the Court shall find for the defendant; and every such action shall be commenced within three months next after the accrual of the cause of action, and not afterwards; and if any person to whom any such notice is given shall, before action brought, tender sufficient amends to the plaintiff, such plaintiff shall not recover in any such action when brought; and if no such tender shall have been made, it shall be lawful for the defendant in such action, by leave of the Court where such action shall be pending, at any time before issue joined, to pay into Court such sum of money as he shall think fit, and thereupon such proceedings shall be had as in other cases where defendants are allowed to pay money into Court.

No writ or process to be issued against Commissioners or their officers until after one month's notice of cause of action, &c.

XXXIII. The Commissioners shall, as soon after the 1st day of January in every year as may be practicable, prepare a detailed statement showing the nature and amount of the receipts and disbursements on account of the Municipal Fund for the past year, and also a report of their proceedings during that year; and such statement and report shall be printed and published for general information. The accounts of the said funds may, at the request of not less than rate-payers, be audited by such person as the Local Government shall appoint.

XXXIV. For better enabling the Commissioners to ascertain the amount of fines and penalties payable to them on account of the Municipal Fund under the provisions of Act XIV of 1856, or of the special Act, or of any other law, there shall, in every month, be furnished to them by the authority adjudicating the same a summary of all convictions under the said Acts, or under any such other law, during the preceding month.

XXXV. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners, with the sanction of the Local Government, to borrow and take up at interest, on the credit of the rates and taxes imposed and levied on account of the Municipal Fund, under the special Act, or any other Act passed in that behalf, or of a portion of them, any sums of money necessary for defraying any expenses incurred or to be incurred by them in the execution of any such Act or of Act XIV of 1856; and for the purpose of securing the repayment of any sums so borrowed, together with such interest as aforesaid, the Commissioners may mortgage and assign over to the person by or on behalf of whom such sums shall be advanced, the rates and taxes, or the portion of them upon the credit of which such sums shall be borrowed. Provided always that the money borrowed under the authority of this Act shall be borrowed only for works of a permanent nature, and shall not at any time exceed in the whole ten times the average annual sum received and collected in respect of such rates and taxes.

Reply to letter dated 21st December 1855, No. 283.

With reference to the instructions which provide that the time of service during any period exceeding one month passed in Command of Regiments by Senior Majors, who are also Brevet Lieutenant-Colonels, may count towards the three years required to qualify a Lieutenant-Colonel to be promoted to the rank of Colonel, Government observe that this Rule is the same as in H.
